Your Arms lyrics

Written by Yahaloma

Music by Gerardo Perez Capdevila

I stare out my window
Wait for the moment
When you'll arrive
Then I'll be alright
There in your arms

Time went so quickly
The sun has set a million times
But when you arrive
Then I'll be alright
There in your arms

The grass grew but then it withered
The years pass but the days they linger
But when you arrive
Then I'll be alright
There in your arms

My heart it longs for you
You are everything I'll ever need
And when you arrive
Then I'll be alright
Right there in your arms

I stare out my window
Wait for the moment
When you'll arrive
Then I'll be alright
There in your arms
