"Never Touch The Ground"

I feel the weight on my shoulders
Can you feel it too?
I know that were getting older
What else can we do?
Oh I believe in the lost of my innocence
Canâ€™t tell you what day
Now I know that we will all stop making sense
And that is okay
Simply sayin that Iâ€™m never coming down
We Never Touch The Ground

I feel just like Iâ€™ve been reborn
Can you feel it too?
I know that we have survived the storm
So what canâ€™t we do?
Oh I believe in a different perfection now
No white picket fence
Oh we got ourselves a different direction now
What has it all meant?
Simply sayin that Iâ€™m never coming down
