set out on the voyage of the conquering fools looking for the gold and the modern day jewels it come to pass what was stuck in my head if i didn't quit on looking then i'm probably dead

i hit the road and i rolled up north looking for the origin, the place of my birth i didn't notice when i ran a red sign hoping that everything would really be fine uh ha ha

people come and people go but they never know what is going on so they gotta try to be what they want to be what the hell is happening to me

i set out about an hour ago looking for my gold, and im sailing oh then i went down looking for that big that big, baby, big brass show so i, i went and then he started to go walking down the same old, same old road thinking to myself, this quite a struggle what am i gotta do tomorrow im gonna find my gold and conquer me some fools yeeaaaaaaahhh

long long time ago i found myself looking for fools and what i did not let myself know was that these fools were inside my mind id love to do right all the time but i found there are times when i love to do so wrong and i know, that the fools are at the bottom of it all when no substance can control you you done conquered that fool when that alcohol can not own you

and when no one person runs you you must conquer that fool and when you learn in them books everything ya need to know well you can conquer them fools you can conquer them fools that ya like yall dont have to go
