Will you get by on your looks Or do you think that you're superman or how you think you're so wise but you're as green as a grape

you think you're a man
but you cry like a baby

It's not about the car or the shiny ring cuz I'm tired of waiting for you it's not about the money or celebrity cuz I'm tired, I'm tired and do you think when you speak you're such a fool when you drink and when you think that you're superman I will never be your super fan

It's not about the car or the shiny ring
cuz I'm tired of waiting for you
it's not about the money or celebrity

So tired of waiting on this thought you'd save me with one little kiss would you ever make up your mind before it's too late and we run out of time

It's not about the car or the shiny ring
cuz I'm tired of waiting for you
it's not about the money or celebrity
