

Yume "On My Own"

The time has come to say goodbye moving forward with our lives memories I will always have through the good and through the bad and I'm afraid of what comes next but I will live with no regrets

I will be okay
no matter what they say I'll find the strength to carry on I know what I can be if I just believe that I can do this on my own, on my own

Impossible it used to seem but now's the chance to live the dream along the way i'll make mistakes but I won't quit give up or break and now's the time I've got to go one step closer to the door

I will be okay
I'll find the strength to carry on
I know what I can be
if I just believe

there's no way I could forget you no way I could repay you for the memories I will cherish in my life but it's time to close this chapter find out what happens here after and to take this next adventure on my own oh

I will be okay

if I just believe
that I can do this on my own, on my own, on my own
