One Way Out

I cant go on like this
Ive lost all my friends
left me to my own ends
Why must they be so selfish
Why must they be so cruel
They think I am a broken man
They think I am a fool

But now i see so clear
I see through my only fear
I see the open door here
ONE WAY, JUST ONE WAY

My friends theyre all gone shes all i got left any more I feel that with her Ive won but i know shes jus another whore Shes left me for him now left me for my best friend I sit here and ask myself how and wait for the bitter end

But now i see so clear
I see through my only fear
I see the open door here
ONE WAY, JUST ONE WAY

Its the only way out
Its the only way out
Come to me, Oh fate come to me
Im tired of being to blind to see

But now i see so clear
I see through my only fear
I see the open door here
