"Hey listen I have a record I want you to play.
Don't you think the kids would enjoy a nice song with a melody?"

"What you got homez?"

"It is a rare one of a kind original pressing." (echoes)

This is a world premiere

Yo yo yo (Pacewon)

Yo yo yo (Pacewon)

(Roc A Blok) yo yo yo

Yo yo Pacer

Full clip one up in the chamber danger

Ask you what you want, what's the flavor?

I got thirty-five when I sign with a major

Invested twenty-nine point eight, spent the change up

Never been the type to take advice from a stranger

Gun next to me like my neighbor

Stay tough, spit the hot shit to get the paper

I roll with more force than Darth Vader

Let's see what you made of

To hip hop heads, I'm like a savior

Nigger that ball like Big Pun, but don't wanna be a player

This year I declare war on the mayor

Like let my niggers out the devil's lair, or I'll spray ya

Park your here, spark your fears

Man without dog gone care, walk on air

Check before I mark your gear, call y'all queers

Could rock steady for four more years, all y'all scared

Terrorist niggers want to bomb, I'm here

Quick to cop, pop me in their CD-ROM and stare

Even if our cliques don't get along, who care

You still be glaring at the clothes me and my crew wear

You need to lighten up, digest a few beers

Before you end up meeting the man you do fear

This year I declare war on the mayor

Like my niggers out the devil's lair, or I'll spray ya

Niggers thought they couldn't be beat, no love

Think it's all coming we speak, no sir

The fact that I'm usually deep in most clubs

You know it's going down when I'm creepin' close up

You non-descript niggers might sneak and throw duds

But when the bomb go off, those who sleeping woke up
Pacewon, cock my heat back, and blow slugs
Making you gangsters with tree and grow bud
My Outsider posse meet and show fucks
When hip hop was like where we had to grow up
This year I declare war on the mayor
Like let my niggers out the devil's lair, or I'll spray ya
