VERSE 1.

Take a chance
Always shared a life with a risky plan
Never would've thought that it'd get so sad
Lifes a joke does it make you (hahaha)?
I'm in the sky
I'm on some shit that'll make you fly
It's all for the ride
Why feel low when you can feel high (x2)
It's the world that we live in *Its all to dull and it's all to vivid
Everything wrong but the world keep spinnin
And if I were king it would all be different
Wish I coulda made you proud
It's too bad how things turned out
Hands on your head
Face in the gorund
Try to get up and I shut you down

HOOK. (x2)

I'm in the sky
I'm on some shit that'll make you fly
It's all for the ride
Why feel low when you can feel high-(x2)

Mr. Doubtful Didn't they
Mr. Doubtful didn't they tell
Mr. Doubtful didn't they tell you
There's demons in the ceiling they say that there here to help you

Close your eyes

Why feel low when you can feel high

Close your eyes

Why feel low when you can feel high
I'm in the sky
I'm on some shit that'll make you fly
It's all for the ride

Why feel low when you can feel high-(x2)

VERSE 2

Let it crawl through your veins
Let it be, let it breathe
Let it alter your brain
Let it wash you away
Let it take your breathe
Let it cause you pain
I've watched you change
There's no where safe just walk away
I've seen ya skeem
I've lost your game (x2)
Say lets play ball
*Aim for the stars we'll take
Take it to the top and then watch it fall
Don't be alarmed that's who you are
What a thing to say
Everything to lose and nothin to gain
Looking for the sun but you end up in the rain
But truth be told that's everyday

HOOK. (x2)

I'm in the sky
I'm on some shit that'll make you fly
It's all for the ride
Why feel low when you can feel high (x2)
