Verse 1:

They don't mention me, it's elementary.
A-B-C-D-E-F-G-H-I-J-K-L-M-N-O-P... See I was different, I listened,
Always asked for permission, my teachers said I'd be a doctor or a Mathematician. And they thought, that I had shot, to the top with the Knowledge. It's embarrassing to tell them that I dropped out of College. But I followed my passion, always writing, steady prayin',
Before I knew it, here I was, spittin' lines for Teddy Pain. And now I'm signed, but I ain't blind, I know that fame is an Allusion, can't take credit for my talent, so I came to the conclusion
That..

Chorus:

To whom much is given, much will be demanded each day as I Grow older, the more I understand it. I'm blessed with a gift, I can't Take it for granted, each day as I grow older, the more I understand
It ain't me! This Ain't Me (x3). Don't give me credit, no!

Verse 2:

I basically lace it but no kicks are needed. Repeated, heated to mean it, they've seen it, fixed to face it. You see, I'm chasing the demon, defeated tricks, evaded, the faded mix created, I hate, it led to Eden. Now I'm certain the serpent is lurking, pullin' & jerking & twerking, Working a burden, until it's hurtin' & murkin'. The Word alerted, I heard it, I flirted flesh with murder, the best occurred if I'm earnest, the rest blessed that heard us, because...

Chorus:...

Verse 3: I ain't livin' by the law, but see I'm not a felon.

I'm

Removing dirty deeds, like squirting seeds in watermelons. It's a Manifestation of gas stations, the nations blaming inflation, their

Patience is growing thin like starvation. But it's salvation that

Changes my earned eternal damnation. Crucified in that moment, the World's chance for atonement. Not restricted or afflicted by the Devils plots depicted. I accept the resurrected, Satan's toss is

Intercepted.
