Borrowed reason
That taste stirs nothing in me
And the only way to get by
Is being built into this wall
Yeah it's a copout
Standing still to please your doubt
And for years in a snare
We're so sorry we left out your reason to crawl

So sit down vacuum child get sucked in Desensitize, stand up
Direct feed in through your eyes
But now your looking the wrong way
Why play not wanting anymore
The first bites the best
So you leave the rest
Lying face down like a razor
Lying

Good evening clapper loader
You should override the writer
Making stories fold because truths are told
In better ways than these Believe me - I could show you if I had something to show
But your histories been bound and gagged
And the pattern that's ingrained tells you to...
Crawl into yourself
Safe Inside your cage
