And so you begin to sit and wait
For the drugs to kick in and take the pain away
And all that you had
And all that you lost

Can you feel it now?
Can you feel it now?

As the weight of the world
Hangs on you shoulders
The weight of the world
Starts to take over again
And over again

All that you once loved, now you hate
So slowly relearn how to meditate
To have and to hold
And never let go

Can you feel it now?
Can you feel it now?

As the weight of the world
Hangs on you shoulders
The weight of the world
Starts to take over and over and over again

You've already cut yourself off
Before you begin
But its better to let it all out
Than holding it in

As the weight of the world
Hangs on your shoulders
The weight of the world
Starts to take over

The weight of the world
Hangs on you shoulders
Starts taking over

The weight of the world
Hangs on your shoulders
The wait for the girl
Starts taking over again
And over again

And so you begin to sit and wait,
