When I was crying loudly at the bench
You came and caught my tears
You made me happy, you made me felt so safe But you've gone when this heart was hoping on you

You tell me don't cry, but you always make me cry, crying lonely oh loudly

Why it just needs few seconds to say hello but we need forever to say goodbye?

You tell me don't cry, but you always make me cry,
crying lonely oh loudly
You tell me don't give up, but now you leave me alone and I'll go, I'll go leave this life only for you, only for you

Only for you

Please stop the hands of time
Let this moment last forever

You tell me don't cry, but you always make me cry,
crying lonely oh loudly
and I'll go, I'll go leave this life only for you, only for
you

Only for you

You tell me don't give up

And now you leave me alone
