Night brings patience
And lucidity of mind
Am I the only one who is awake?
It seems to me that right now
Things are even more real and clear
To some extent I am filled with darkness
With darkness
I don't need the sun to be my source of light
Cause I've got it inside
I don't need the moon to be my company
Cause I've got it inside
I've locked the darkness in the lighthouse
It's all about keeping it inside and not letting it out
This is what my life turns in
I am filled with darkness and light
I'm a lighthouse
I don't need the sun to be my source of light
Cause I've got it inside
I don't need the moon to be my company
Cause I've got it inside
I give my light to those who are adrift and keep the darkness inside
Cause I am
A lighthouse
I don't need the sun to be my source of light
Cause I've got it inside
I don't need the moon to be my company
Cause I've got it inside
