[Verse 1]

She smiles like you, even wears the same scent.
She parties just like you, we even have the same sex.
She's just a clone, something to do since
you've been gone, gone.
And everyday I wait, and she wants a taste.
I just close my eyes and I see your face.
She's just a clone, something to do since I'm alone, alone.

[Chorus]

She's just a replacement, replacement.
Ain't got nothing on you, ain't got nothing on
you.
She's just a replacement, they're all
replacements.
Ain't got nothing on you, ain't got nothing on
you.

[Verse 2]

I know I screwed up, I ain't tryna win you back.
Now you with that loser, and he don't know how to act.
He's just a lame, not all of us are built the same,
no.
I try to find a opposite, but that wasn't the move.
So I got this counterfeit, I found another you.
She's just a clone, something to do since
you've been gone, long gone.

[Chorus]

She's just a replacement, replacement.
She ain't got nothing on you, she ain't got
nothing on you.
She's just a replacement, they're all
replacements.
She ain't got nothing on you, she ain't got
nothing on you.

[Bridge]

I never really thought about stopping,
Never really thought that was an option.

So imma keep doing what Iâ€™ve been.
Until you find another that falls short of me,
Then youâ€™ll see that theyâ€™re all replacements
for me.

I never really thought about stopping,
Never really thought that was an option.
So imma keep doing what Iâ€™ve been.
Until you find another that falls short of me,
Then youâ€™ll see that theyâ€™re all replacements
for me.

Yeah. I said theyâ€™re all replacements.
How the fuck could you replace this?
Oh, yeah. Said theyâ€™re all replacements.
They can never be half of you, oh.
Theyâ€™re all replacements, till weâ€™re back together.

[Chorus]
Sheâ€™s just a replacement, replacement.
She ainâ€™t got nothing on you, she ainâ€™t got
nothing on you.
Sheâ€™s just a replacement, theyâ€™re all
replacements.
She ainâ€™t got shit on you, yeah, yeah.
Sheâ€™s just a replacement.
