Verse 1:

This is the price we'll have to pay for our broken
paradise,
this is the mask we hide behind, it's far too late to turn around.

Chorus;

For the ones with no way out, all the ones who still believe that we can change this world together, we sing this broken symphony.

Verse 2:

These are the lies we tell ourselves, this isn't what this world was meant to be,
the time will come for us to see that all the choices we make come back.

Chorus (x2)

Sing it, sing it, sing it out! (x2)

That we can change this world together,
we sing this broken symphony.
