Mary-Jane,
I saw you sittin' here the other day,
You're here again and look the same way!
I guess certain things never change!
Now what you think of that?
Oh Mary-Jane,
I thought you might wanna talk a while!
Damn you have time to gimme some time?
Cause there's something I got
And we both got!
Now do you have a doubt?

There's light on everyone,
For worse or better
We got our better looks on
And play for bastards "Yeah !

Mary-Jane,
You're just standing by the fast lane
And ready to dive "Well I'm sorry babe
The guy on the cross turned his head away!
Now what you think of that?
Oh Mary-Jane,
I guess you came in at the right time
We're all part of the big time
And there's something I got
And we both got!
Now do you have a doubt?

There's light on everyone,
For worse or better
We got our better looks on
And play for bastards "Yeah !
And even the deaf and blind
Sing along through the night!

It's only crap when it comes about
Being the best they ever had!
You're my all-time number one
Being only just yourself!
