Use to be easy going out
With little or nothing to think about
Now we live in constant doubt
And the fashions that we wear
Or the way we style our hair
Makes no difference if the truth becomes a dare
We need a heart to heart
Right from the very start
We need a heart to heart to heart
Dinner and dancing were so fine
With the caviar and wine
And the conversation never crossed the line
But as the evening starts to end
With the messages you send
Do you have a past that now you must defend
CHORUS
Everythings changin'
Faster than you know
It use to be the lovers
They would come and go
But we can't keep on lovin' everyone were with
The roulette wheel keeps spinning
And it could hit or miss
Give me that old fashioned romance
Serenade or moonlight dance
Holding hands in hope a kiss might be by chance
As I make my final stand
Will you see this if you can
As opportunity, to know just who I am
