"The Walls Between Us"

Visit "The Walls Between Us" on MotoLyrics.com

Show me the light I'll be just fine.
Theres no turnng back your my only way out.
Ive been calling out your name tearing down the walls the walls that stand between us Ive been waiting here for you i fear am falling falling away from you

You swore that you'd leave but we've already been there baby, i swear we'll se this happen everytime and on your way out i hope you cant find a reaon there to let it be to let it fall and fade away Please understand me babe without you i am nothing i know its hard to say our love is slowly fading
