In the heart of the city
On a lonely Friday night
Well, you been walking in the shadows
While the rest walk in the light

Girls all look so pretty
The big ones and the small
But they don't look in the shadows
So they don't see your kind at all

You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah
You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah

Well, in the heart of the city
You got some money left to spend
Even the barman thinks you are funny
'Cos you came without a friend

You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah
You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah

This could be the night when it all comes together
If you let yourself get better
This could be the night the light shines down on you
You're just a little old country fool, yeah

This could be the night when it all comes together
If you let yourself get better
This could be the night the light shines down on you
You're just a little old country fool, yeah

You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah
You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah

You're just another lonely soul
Walkin' round this rock and roll, yeah
