Lost to me, you're lost to me again
The bottle has become your only friend
Got to be, you've got to be a man
Apparently you can

If I could I'd wipe the tears out of your eyes
You know I would if I'd ever seen you cry
But I've never seen you cry

You're all alone in misery again
I knew you'd be in the end
But I believe in harmony with man
Family and friends

If you would please wipe the tears out of my eyes
If I could I'd be crying all the time
But I've never seen you cry

Never seen you cry
I've never seen you crying
I know that it's not right
I've never see you crying

If I could I'd wipe the tears out of your eyes
You know I would if I'd ever seen you cry
But I've never seen you cry
