Whatâ€™s there to do?
Whatâ€™s there to say?
If I canâ€™t love you the night is my day

I wake in the evening
Have breakfast at night
Dreaming when the sun comes out
Afraid of the light

Does anyone know how to heal the pain?
Is there anyway to start again?

Iâ€™m so tired and Iâ€™m so wired
Well Iâ€™m so tired and Iâ€™m so wired

Nothing can change me
Thereâ€™s no where to go
Is there an answer? (yes)
What donâ€™t I know?

The moonlight is shining
It helps me forget
All of my sorrows
And things I regret

Iâ€™ll never know how to heal the pain
There is nothing you can say to start again

Iâ€™m so tired and Iâ€™m so wired
Well Iâ€™m so tired but Iâ€™m so wiredâ€¦

Letâ€™s awaken the night!

And so the nights drag on
As my mind drifts further away
Drifts awayâ€¦ Each passing day (repeats)
