Utterances
(Lyrics by Mike Nicholas)

Let's unleash the utterances
Utterances; Utterances
Let's unleash the utterances
Utterances; Utterances

Feeling alone;
As if an emptiness haunts you
With each passing breath you grow a weakness inside
You've been compromised and you don't even realize
Oh, I've been there;

Now is the time to rise
And break through these chains that bring you down to size
There's a truth to be found

Feeling hollow;
As if your skin and bones reflect who you are
More than your mind and your soul
You are paralyzed; No remorse in your eyes
Oh, I've been there;

Now is the time to rise
And break through these chains that bring you down to
size
There's a truth to be found

(utterances)
Feeling alone as if an emptiness haunts you
(utterances)
With each passing breath you grow a weakness inside
(utterances)
You've been compromised
You've been compromised
You've been compromised.
