I was dreaming alone
When you crept your way into my life
With a smile so warm like it meant no harm
But it soon became a trouble, that's right

And like my mama once said
There's no monsters hiding in my bed
But it looks quite clear that I found one here
Just trying to creep her way into my head

I said ooh ooh, you know how to fool my heart
Baby, cause you're a woman
Ooh ooh, I'm not gonna play that part
'Cause I know that you played me right from the start

This girl doesn't love me
She just brings me down and bleeds me dry
Oh woman, I know how you're used to behaving
But I feel when you're telling me lies

This girl doesn't love me
And I don't know why I even try
Was it you, was it me?
Tell me what did I see?
'Cause I only say hello
When I should say goodbye

When I hold you too close
Girl you tell me that I should go home
When I ask you why, you smile and sigh
And tell me that to stay a little bit longer

I said ooh ooh, you know how to fool my heart
Baby, yeah
Ooh ooh, I'm not gonna play that part
'Cause I know that you played me right from the start

This girl doesn't love me
She just brings me down and bleeds me dry
Oh woman, I know how you're used to behaving
But I feel when you're telling me lies

This girl doesn't love me
And I don't know why I even try
Was it you, was it me?
Tell me what did I see?
'Cause I only say hello
When I should say goodbye

So tell me baby
I gotta, gotta know now
Tell me the way I should go

'Cause this girl doesn't love me
She just brings me down and bleeds me dry
Oh woman, I know how you're used to behaving
But I feel when you're telling me lies

This girl doesn't love me
So I don't know why I even try
Was it you, was it me?
Tell me what did I see?
'Cause I only say hello
When I should say goodbye
Oh yeah, hey
I say good-good-good-goodbye
I say no
I say no
I say good-good-good-goodbye
I say yeah
I say good-good-good-goodbye
I say yeah
I say yeah
I say good-good-good-goodbye
