Lets face it, I've got more wrong than I got right
And I wasted oh...
So many days chasin' dreams through so many nights

Made a stone and I rolled upon it
Realized the man that I used to be Found out a change and you know I'm on it
So trust in me...

Sorry I wasn't always around
Thank you. Thank you
Things will be so different now
Thank you. Thank you

I can taste it oh...
This is the time we've been waiting for
And baby I chased it
Till I didn't know what I was doin' no more

I went to the well and I wished upon it
Make me the man that I need to be
I think of you and I'm learnin' from it
So trust in me, trust in me

Sorry I wasn't always around
Thank you. Thank you
Things will be so different now
Thank you. Thank you

I can't promise I'll be perfect
Gonna promise I'll do the best I can

Sorry I wasn't always around
Thank you, Thank you
Things will be so different now
Thank you, Thank you

Sorry I wasn't always around
I love you... oh I love you
