Cocktails for the preacher
The cabin boy won't stay
Monsignor Babble knows the business
No money down, no one gets saved

He knows
I know

Contract with America
Be sure to hit the vein
The senator knows the beltway
The can boy still won't play

I know
He knows
I know
I know I know I know ...

The banker and a thumb
Gidget get your gun
Gatsby's on the tube
The Arabs and the Jews are getting some

I know

There's too many of us.
