Heh, you know.
You thought you got away from me,
But you didn't.
That's right. I fooled you this time.

It was the wrong time
For you to fool around
It took a long time
Another love is what you found

Well, how could you do it
Turned you back on me
You're taking me through it
This pain in my heart I just don't need

[Chorus]

It's in your eyes
Only I can see through you
There's no use in running away
Don't try to hide
Cause I'm telling you the truth
Won't you take the time to listen

I know you love me
Though you say you don't
You say you're leavin'
I know you won't

How could you do it
This is the second time
You say you belong to him
But deep in your heart, you know that you're mine

Think back over the years
All the things that we've been through
Touch base with all of my tears
That I've cried for you and only you and only you

[Repeat Chorus 2X]

How could you do that

This is the second time
You say you belong to him
But deep in your heart, you know that you're mine

Think back over the years
All the things that we've been through
Touch base with all of my tears
That I've cried for you and only you and only

[Repeat Chorus]
