Eyes coming here from nowhere
Was the unforgiving seen.
Drifting further and further
It's all becoming clear to me.
The violent winds are upon us
And I can't sleep.
Internal Temperature's rising,
And all the voices won't recede.

I finally found what
I was looking for.
A place where I can be without the parts.

Because I'm a stranger who has found an even stranger war.
I finally found what
I was looking for

Here I come,
Come. (x7)
Here I come.
(With the nerve to kill!)

I, shocked in the night,
I looked down upon the pain.
For all my life,
A stranger I remain. (x3)
