Born into a pack,
there's no choice
but take orders to attack.
Wrapped up in chains,
I get fed,
but the hunger still remains.

Not content to live this way,
being led by the blind.
Got to plan my dispersal.
Time to leave them all behind.

Breaking out of my pain.
Nothing ventured, nothing gained.
I'm my own master now.

Been robbed of my scars,
shedding blood underneath the stars,
but I will survive somehow.

Hear me howl!
Time to leave them all behind.
I'm my own master now.
