Hook:

(Make Me Smile With My Heart)
I'm Just asking you to make me smile
(Make Me Smile With My Heart)
Cuz I ain't Cracked a Smile in a While
(Make Me Smile With My Heart)
I'm Just tryna find a reason to smile
(Make Me Smile With My Heart)
Just wanna see you smile

Verse 1:

My Mind Wanders, If you find it please return it, I'm alone in the dark with cigarette ashes burnin, Cuz I'm stressed out, the doctors say I'm Too Depressed, tell me to love life, But Living Is Such A mess, and I'm guessing it could be worse but I'm just tired of hurting, Family Secrets I'm learning, sick of Carrying a Burden, I've collapsed into an ocean of Emotions and I'm drowning Fast, Shit I don't know What to do, and this music will get me through it, I try to sustain, Summer days wither away, they're Just adding to the pain, so I'm searching high and low, Looking for an answer, working on my suicide with every stick of cancer I'm burning (Burning), But Still nothing seems to phase me, prescription meds got me feeling like I'm crazy, I've been like this for a while, cuz
I can never find a reason to smile

Verse 2:

Lonely nights got me questioning my worth, I feel like I ain't good enough, but it's tough to play my position, feel like everyone hates me, lately lately, ladies have been driving me crazy, wonder if they take advantage cuz they know I'm always here, I listen to all their issues but no one can lend an ear when I need one, but its something I'm immune to, probably because it's all that I'm used to, calling me a genius, but I got a couple screws loose, tell em I'm been in your shoes too, whatever you do, don't let one person ruin you, and stay above whatever influenced you, don't make somebody pay for actions of another, or you'll be left to wonder if it could've been forever, I ain't seen a sunny day in a while, and I'm just tryna be the reason you smile
