Paint on smile
Your pale white face
Does your light still shine?
When your body's weak

Left out the window
Life is cold
Words untold
When did truth become so wrong?

Open up for words
Lines unfold
Life is a precious gift untold

Open up for words
Lines unfold
Life is a precious gift untold

Night comes clean
All cats are grey
Come into my world
You know right from wrong

Life is cold
Words untold
When did truth become so wrong?

You show your face
now that it's over
Impossible
Rejectable
Is the crown you wear
