Hey, hey, hey

You're nice then you're not
But you give what you got
Spending your cash to get a new bag of pot
The sirens shoot off and you run for your life
This is the life of a teenage life

What's up with automatic mixed emotions
What's up with catastrophic events
What's up with automatic mixed emotions
What's up with catastrophic events
Hey, hey, hey

Tongue in the cheek
With a sign of retreat
Living in hell is never too easy
Taking the bus then you're begging for lust
Begging forgiveness and begging enough

What's up with automatic mixed emotions
What's up with catastrophic events
What's up with automatic mixed emotions
What's up with catastrophic events
Hey, hey, hey

Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Hey
