Can't find the answers
This is a disaster
I'm trying to figure all of this out
The world is distorted
People getting sorted
And what is left to cry about

All my life I've been living in a lie
When it's time, I'll break off these chains and die

I'll find a way
I'll find a way

Tell me a secret I might regret
'Cause now I want to live with no turning back for help

We are molested
With no exceptions
Everyone is breaking my heart
Leaders are boring
We are not scoring
Each day this world is falling apart

Tell me the truth between right and wrong
No one taught me nothing
Where do I belong?

I'll find a way
I'll find a way

Tell me a secret I might regret
'Cause now I want to live with no turning back for help

I'll find a way
I'll find a way
