when did your eyes' glaze dull
my Antarctica
they're treating you like a dog and you just play along oh noble man of god
your face is getting old you led us to water but left us in dry holes
when did your eyes' glaze dull
my Antarctica
my beloved home
they treat you like a dog
my Antarctica
my beloved home
forgive me if I join along you take your mother's hat and I'll wear your father's shoes

they're stretching you in two
your heart has been untrue you promised us sunshine and we believed you

when did your eyes' glaze dull
my Antarctica
my beloved home
my Antarctica
I'm sorry if I joined along
I'm sorry if I joined along
