if you can find the soft in the red of your heart then i can find the skin on my teeth everybody's good everybody s bad but everybody looks like a thief so who really cares if the sun don't shine who really cares if the sun don't shine if you can make a bet and place yourself out of debt then i am the million dollar man everybody's rich everybody's poor but everybody holds out their hand so who really cares if we don't get high who really cares if we don't get low who really cares if the sun don't shine who really cares if the moon don't glow who really cares if we don't go up who really cares if we don't go down who really cares if we can't stay up who really cares if we can't come down
