i do say wolf
when the sky falls down and i'm upside down
with the sounds i've found i could take from you
you could take from me
i could fake in you
you can fake in me
but the wind don't blow and the sun don't shine so no body knows
it's the summertime
may i die
in the summertime
may your eyes
know which glow is mine
may i die
in the summertime
may your eyes
i do cry wolf
when the sun comes up
did you hear the birds
damn near fell in love
but i've read my books
thought i'd grown so smart but i shake all night
when the room gets dark
i can't sleep
at all through the night
i can't sleep
i'll be gone
by the summertime
may your heart
be apart from mine

i can say wolf
when the sky is gold
when the moon explodes
when the sun turns cold

to the right-side-ups
when you turn around
i'll be right-side-up
