rubber balls
for your saddest eyes
the sun and moon
lead the saddest lives
jesus christ
i'm so happy
when you cry
going up
or coming down
i've got good news
somehow i've found
hallelugh
i'm so happy
when you frown
jesus christ
it feels so nice
to break a heart
once or twice
when the sky gets the sun
all in your eyes
here i stand
the weather man
i'll touch the sun
with my bare hands
jesus christ
no one ever
understands
rubber balls
for your saddest eyes
the happy ones
lead the saddest lives
and jesus christ
when you cry
