"Lazy Eyes"

Visit "Lazy Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

Now I'm just hanging in thin air
Here comes the familiar taste of fear

I've been digging a hole,
I've been digging a hole for myself

Lazy eyes looking for something new I've got so much time and I can't think of anything to do

I've been digging a hole,
I've been digging a hole for myself

So tell me why I let you in All you ever did was to pick at my sins
I'm floating out here in thin air
Here comes the familiar taste of fear

I've been digging a hole,
I've been digging a hole for myself

Looking for something new

I've been digging a hole,
I've been digging a hole for myself
