Take me down to the dreary basement where the sun never ever shines And show me where you spent the days that killed the smile your eyes
When you told me what you tried to do,
you made me want to do it too
When you told me what you tried to do,
you made me want to do it too

When you said,
suicide
In your head
This is suicide
In your head,
this is suicide
So this is suicide?

Oh here it comes, another day with a slightly different shade of grey
This is suicide
This is suicide
So this is suicide

This is suicide
This is suicide
So this is suicide
This is suicide

This is suicide!
So this is suicide!
