Up baby I'm on my way, To make that money and have a good day Stopped at the mirror, looked back and yes From head to toe oh I'm so fresh Hopped in the car, pull out my garage See my neighbor he looking at me hard Try to... better but it... back He still mad at the... in black ... can't let that phase me Stopped at the light next to an old lady Tried to smile at her when I glanced her way And she locked her door like she was afraid

We're just running way too fast And we can't see down the road We can't slow the situation getting critical, critical Crash, we fronting like we're all in a race Crash, we interact in negative ways Crash, ease off, relax on your pace, yeah Situation's too critical

Nodes how people don't buy no more Everything forced, no calm no more Hate or love, extremes we take And the ones... extremely fake I hate that hate and not updated Can't wait till... I'm faded... We all play in the stereotype like a violin

We're just running way too fast And we can't see down the road We can't slow the situation getting critical, critical Crash, we fronting like we're all in a race Crash, we interact in negative ways Crash, ease off, relax on your pace, yeah Situation's too critical Crash, we fronting like we're all in a race Crash, we interact in negative ways Crash, ease off, relax on your pace, yeah Situation's getting critical

We're just running too fast, can't see down the road

We can't slow the situation's getting critical, critical

Crash, we fronting like we're all in a race Crash, we're in our acting negative ways Crash, ease off, relax on your pace, yeah Situation's too critical Nodes how people don't buy no more Everything forced, no calm no more Hate or love, extremes we take And the ones... extremely fake I hate that hate and not updated Can't wait till... I'm faded... We all play in the stereotype like a violin.
