"Influenza"

We stretch the anger until ambition falls
And influenza comes
We keep it silent hidden in the walls
But waiting in the calm
Hearts beat faster
Oh they do not control
The ways of your blood
Wasting patience
Cracks on your faith grow
Now influenza comes
Now influenza comes

Sleepwalkers you come right through these heavy nights
To find the dreamers' house
Assembly lines attract you in their arms
And never let you out
Breath is fever, your nerves are on fire
No way to make it sound
We're mad, mad upon this sleeping bomb
Our fuse needs a light

People sweat
People fear
Influenza comes influenza comes
People sweat
People fear
You deserve it now, you deserve it now

I dance with you and nothing counts
Anymore
I'm lost in you and ghost outside

People sweat
People fear
Influenza comes influenza comes
People sweat
People fear
You deserve it now, you deserve it now

Our bodies we threw in the thrill of the crowd
They are gold, they have gold and the feel to be proud

So let's use youth no bound no doubt
We'll approach the source, we will dig the crown

People sweat
People fear
Influenza comes influenza comes
People sweat
People fear
You deserve it now, you deserve it now
