Stepping out of human form
Let it all out once again
Move forward and keep the pace
Division of destruction
All the pain put aside
Set your mind for the killing
Take 'em out one by one
Make your deal with the devil

Faster... Bring the great disaster

Into the chaos with blood on your hands
Steel shards embedded in your body
The bright colours have turned to grey
This is the coming of the Reckoning day

Follow the raging storm ahead
Stare into the flame
This is the core of the war I live
Where every day is

Faster... Bring the great disaster

Into the chaos with blood on your hands
Steel shards embedded in your body
The bright colours have turned to grey
This is the coming of the Reckoning day
Into the chaos with blood on your hands
Steel shards embedded in your body
The bright colours have turned to grey
This is the coming of the Reckoning day

Stepping out of human form
Let it all out once again
Move forward and keep the pace
Division of destruction
All the pain put aside
Set your mind for the killing
Take 'em out one by one
Make your deal with the devil
