

220 Volt "Mind Over Muscle"

Throughout the nation with whips and chains
Success with wicked minds
No point in saying what's right or wrong
Action speaks louder than words
They buy your soul with dirty deeds
They try to lock your minds
Spread the word, tell 'em in the backyard
We've crossed the worlds to send 'em back
Down to where they came from
Action in the night

MIND OVER MUSCLE

Take a breath and scream it out

Hey

Subway battles, with flashing knives
The thrill of the game
Mass confusion, so hypnotizing
The thrill of the money
When the whistle blows through burning skies
Try to put a stop to killing lies
It was written back in the early days
Aliens landed just to say
Action every day

Hey
