[Verse One] [MURS] Now why you gotta give me attitude for young lady? Them lips and them curves will drive a grown man crazy Wasn't trying to be rude I was just thinking maybe We'd talk a little bit And later on make some babies [Eligh] Then she stepped in my direction Angelic face to my drunken sway PSC led her to me Through a dark club in San Jose Had no way to identify What was right in front of my eyes Smoking beedies with my guys MURS was there he can testify (Amen) I was swallowed up by love and what followed up were doves In the garden of my bedroom where we frolicked Pendulum didn't mean a thing She put on one of my black t-shirts A polaroid in the back of my cabinet Never throw it away But now I can tell you fellas Love is a weed when you don't water it properly Stopping me in my tracks Heart attack can't relax The artifacts on the road to become a man are hard to take To face the heart break These taste the hard steaks/stakes [Scarub] Sunday banana splittin' Monday for chocolate fudgin' Tuesday vanilla frenchin' Wednesday cinnamon lovin' Thursday neapolitan Friday let's lemon meringue ya thang with a twist Saturdays we can do what you wish [Chorus] And if ya had ya heart broken can't find ya way back And if ya Teach me and love me then girl it's on And if ya Wonder where my heart is next to yours it be at And if ya Caught a deaf tone from being left alone And if ya Only got about a B cup then it's cool And if ya Show me yours then I'll show you mine And if ya Trust in me then I'll trust in you And if ya Come with me I know you'll change your mind [Verse Two] [Eligh] You seek my company but I'm not up for that Just want to lay you on your back Don't want to conversate in fact Don't know if we should kick it at all Don't want to cause your heart to fall Don't want to be that man I'm not the one I'm not at all [MURS] The hardest thing I ever had to do was break your heart Kinda knew our relationship was doomed from the start Cause after we'd fight you would listen to Gwen She kinda always knew she'd end up my ex-girlfriend And now that shit's true No Doubt Treated her like royalty whenever we'd go out I bought her Hollister New Cenies Volcom Triple 5 Soul And a bunch of other tokens Trips to New York Japan Oakland So when you say I never loved you it's insultin' Cool as a couple maybe better not together Plus I know I was a good boyfriends so, whatever [Scarub] I'm my father's son Yeah a momma's boy With some brotherly love Love pretty girls oh boy Got this half You could make it whole Let's enjoy Moments while they last Let's play, you could be my favorite toy [Chorus] And if ya had ya heart broken can't find ya way back And if ya Teach me and love me then girl it's on And if ya Wonder where my heart is next to yours it be at And if ya Caught a deaf tone from being left alone And if ya Only got about a B cup then it's cool And if ya Show me yours then I'll show you mine And if ya Trust in me then I'll trust in you And if ya Come with me I know you'll change your mind [MURS] And if I'm not your lover If I'm not your friend I'm a single young man at his sexual peak Type to need a different freak everyday of the week [Scarub] Yeah, I use to know this girl as fly as Saturdays With a wholesome type of soul like a Sunday Had a straight up approach like a Monday Strong head, long legs that stretched past Tuesday Woozy I felt, knew it was love came Wednesday I was hooked, yeah fuck what my friends say My hearts a flower, her water Thursday I'm thirsty Friday she left me and I withered in the worst way Yeah, for her I was weak Melancholy for months Through it all learned how to separate my needs from my wants And what I need is what you got If what you got done front Happiness, a journey not a destination I'm willing to run [Eligh] For once Everything's gonna be alright Summer days will come our way Morning comes to bring brighter suns Clouds part for the weaker hearts Camaraderie with your boys on a Sunday afternoon What's better than that? Staring at asses passing Hollering and laughing [Outro] [MURS talking] Hey, hey hey girl. Hey, did you see that? She got an ass like hallelujah and a face like praise Jesus. I need to go to Bible study. Get naked for Jesus!
