(with Kenny Loggins)

I, I've grown tired of fighting

Whether you're right or wrong, whether I'm weak or strong in your eyes

'Cause it's a lonely feeling

Watching you turn away, why does it have to be this way

On and on tonight you've made a point of being right

Making this a game instead of love - don't you know

Someone's heart might get broken before too long

If we keep on playing this game

Who's right, who's wrong, when love is gone

Who's right, who's wrong, false or true - it never used to matter to you

Now you're almost cryin'

Sayin' "I gotta run", easier said than done

Why? I want to know what you're hiding

Turn around and look at me, have I ever been so hard to see

If we'd only come together for one moment here tonight

You could hold me tight and ease a troubled mind - don't you know

Someone's heart might get broken before too long

If we keep on playing this game

Who's right, who's wrong (so tell me baby)

When love is gone (when there's nothing left)

Who's right, who's wrong, false or true

(Solo)

Who's right, who's wrong (can you tell me), when love is gone

Who's right, who's wrong (don't you see), when love is gone

(Come on)

(Who's right, who's wrong) all that matters is that I love you

(When love is gone) all that matters is that we stay together

(Who's right, who's wrong) we gotta try, it don't come easy

(When love is gone) when love is gone, love is gone

Who's right, who's wrong - I got to say something to you girl

(When love is gone) before it goes too long, yeah yeah (Who's right, who's wrong, when love is gone)... (to fade)
