I could have left you
Out on your own
I should've left you standing
Standing all alone

I could've loved you
But I said good bye
I went and said good bye to
Good bye to
Good bye to you

Good bye to you
Good bye to you
Good bye to you
Good bye to
Heaven and it's place
In our lives
When we throw it all away
They said it was the
Single greatest mistake
The two of us in our lives
Have ever made

And now we've got to Fight
With our might
And our right

I could've held you
But I let you go
I went and left you standing
Left you standing
Standing all alone
I could have loved you
But I said good bye
I went and said good bye to
Good bye to
Good bye to you

Good bye to you
Good bye to you
Good bye to you

Good bye to
Heaven and it's place
In our lives
When we throw it all away
They said it was the
Single greatest mistake
The two of us in our lives
Have ever made

And now we've got to
Fight
With our might
And our right
And let it roll
Good bye to
Heaven and it's place
In our lives
They said it was the
The two of us in our lives
Have ever made

And now we've got to
Fight
With our might
And our right
Let it roll
