Everywhere you go, you know you see my face
Cause you know that you're on my way, my way
(Hey, hey, hey)
I said I'm on my way, my way!
(Hey, hey, hey)
Now I've been all around the world
All across the map
I've been everywhere!

Chorus:

Yo, I've been everywhere and back, doing this a lot
Getting up my stacks, building my connects, yeah
I got my team attached, the spectacles to match
But you thought a nigga... and no, I don't relax, yeah
Mother fucker now I'm back
Chefing on these raps, killing every track
Making way for plaques I will take you to the max
I'mma tell the facts, and if you feel it clap
And if you feel it clap..

Just finished, watching cribs, I thought that's how I need to live
lil wayne ran the game, It's on right I do it big.
Help niggas get through their bads, my music is heart felt Momma, bless me with the charm, I make these ladies' heart melt
Would give my pops some pot, but he left before...
It's the name, three sixty, thirty six Os, that's a key
And that's the key to my success, respect this now, power's next
I'll be on my other shit, higher than the other shit
Stacking dollars, loving...
Ask them where the fuck I went Don't worry where the fuck I've been Worry where the fuck I'm at
And that... and just know that I'm fucking back!
Back to kicking real shit, back to gettin this paper up Back to hittin your girlfriend from the back when she back me down to shake it up
...get that money up, if it's right, then I'm in Nigga, I go everywhere, cause I ain't scared!

Chorus:

Yo, I've been everywhere and back, doing this a lot
Getting up my stacks, building my connects, yeah
I got my team attached, the spectacles to match
But you thought a nigga slacked... and no, I don't relax, yeah
Mother fucker now I'm back
Chefing up these raps, killing every track
Making way for plaques... I will take you to the max
I'mma tell the facts, and if you feel it clap
And if you feel it clap..

I've been everywhere and back, ain't no telling where I'm heading
Shit, I've been through hell, so I'm guessing this is Heaven
The rap game is my church, I just happened to be the reverend
The Bible is my note pad ... the sermon is my session...
What I say inside the booth is personal, is my confessions
First of all most, I ain't settle to live for second
I didn't came too far to let you bitch niggas play me
I done put in too much work to let you bitch niggas play me
So I put out two CDs, not ... nigga wanna help me
... and I don't wanna write no more!
Drop the level in O5, and it got a good response..
I was the man up in my hood, I'm a ghetto superstar
See, it's true, I'm in love with this music and this ...
Cause I've been everywhere, did everything, it's...
coming back
Should remind me of the trap every time I try to quit
I had to get just one more flip,
I'm addicted to this shit (YEAH)!

Chorus:

Yo, I've been everywhere and back, doing this a lot
Getting on my stacks, building my connects, yeah
I got my team attached, the spectacles to match
But you thought a nigga... and no, I don't relax, yeah
Mother fucker now I'm back
Chefing on these raps, killing every track
Making way for plaques I will take you to the max
I'mma tell the facts, and if you feel it clap
And if you feel the clap...
360 make the world go round
Say I'm back... go down!
What up TC, what up LA, what up ATL, hey?
