Put me on a wire, unbrace me
Get me higher and higher
I'm frightened and I'm falling
Can't you hear me calling you
Drag me to the edge and I promise, I will pledge to go with you
Tell me I can take it, tell me I can make it through

Cos every day I try and I try
And every day I wonder why
The world won't stop and now
The bombs are gonna drop from the sky

Today I feel like breaking down
Where there's no-one around to save me
Today is like no other day
Forever winter, hope's beginning to fade

This is getting serious
Making me delirious, crazy
Can't I just be free now
Can't it just be me and you

Cos every day I try and I try
But I'm staring at a darkened sky
I might not win but I will never give in till I die

Today I feel like breaking down
Where there's no-one around to save me
Today is like no other day
Forever winter, hope's beginning to fade

So instead of crying and walking out
Why can't we just talk it out
Cos we've got something beautiful
Something we can't live without

Today I feel like breaking down
Where there's no-one around to save me
Today is like no other day
Forever winter, hope's beginning to fade

I'll fly, I'll throw my body down
So why do I feel like breaking down?
