If there's a wrong way to say this I probably will I've loved you like crazy for ages
And I still feel like climbing the hill
You are the one who is second to none in my eyes
And you look so beautiful tonight

If there's a joke without laughter, a wind without the rain that's who I am
Empty and lost until after I get with you again
In you I'm revived, and my world comes alive every time
You look so beautiful to me

I have found someone I want around
Girl you could cry a river
And I promise you I won't let you drown
In you I see somewhere I want to be
Take from me everything just
Leave me forever with you

Woah bring on the summer rain
Woah let's dance in the sun
Woah, we can do anything
We've only just begun
We've only just begun

If now is the wrong time to say this
I couldn't care less, 'cos

I have found someone I want around
Girl you could cry a river
And I promise you I won't let you drown
In you I see somewhere I want to be
Take from me everything just
Leave me forever with you
You are my everything
Always forever with you
Always forever, always forever
Forever with you
Forever with you
