I won't brace if I see your face
It will remind me
Everything I had I left behind me
I don't care if I see you there
You'll never get me
The bridges that I burn will never let me let you get me

Gonna keep this feelin way down
Way down, way down
Gonna bury it deep down
Way down way down way down Â it ain't ever comin up
It's gonna be like I never met youÂ

Take my placeÂ
You can fill my space
I'll watch from the distance
Broken to the point of no resistance

Gonna keep this feelin way down
Way down, way down
Gonna bury it deep down
Way down way down way down Â it ain't ever gonna show

Life goes on like I never met you
Like you've been and gone
Life goes on like I never met you

Sometimes life's gonna drag you down
Make you feel like you don't belong
Be strong have faith move on it's gonna be ok
You can bounce on back or you can hit the wall
Clear the fence or stumble and fall
Into the comfort zone that you've always known
Never a seed was sown
Or a dream was grown
With no backbone
Have faith

Life goes on like I never met you
Like you've been and gone
Life goes on like I never met you
