(Denise Pearson)

cheeky little boy with a pretty face lost all of his abilities to love, love, love I open his eyes and said son, you're a liar
'coz nobody you ever said shine

oh hey yeah oh oh oh oh ah hey yeah, mmm all I want is just to know for just one time that my heart has not been kept on strings 'cause all I know if it's all you want tonight boy, I mean to be your everything, mmm don't underestimate my emotions because my emotions are true, yeah now don't you ever put me down for playing love games

'cause baby I'm not that way, no

[Chorus:]
I'm still waiting for you that's all I need, my love's so tight it's true to say this woman is... oh oh wah oh ah I'm still waiting for you don't you know I love you, my love's so tight you go and why'd you come around I just want a bit of your time start swinging me round n' getting jiggy, hey try to talk to me on the phone, uh hoooo I'm still waiting, do you hear me, oh you can be mine, baby and I'll stay, yeah ha ha

I can't stop the memories deep inside my mind when you come to me, I overload, yeah I should have stopped these tensions running through my soul I've becoming just a memory, yeah don't you hallucinate your deceptions 'cause you don't know who loves you, no no no so don't you ever put me down

for playing love games
'cause baby I'm not that way, no no no

[chorus x2]

(bit of your time)

cheeky little boy with a pretty face
lost all of his abilities to love love love
I open his eyes and said son you're a liar
'coz nobody you ever said shine
I said listen to your heart, don't go for what I hear if ya really wanna have big fun there's a woman in your life, she's oh so kind... love her don't you underestimate my emotions because my emotions are true, yeah

now don't you ever put me down
for playing love games
'cause baby I'm not that way, no no no no

[chorus over & over again (ad-lib) to fade]
